Project Title: After School Education and Recreation Programs

Amount Requested: $6,000.00

Location of Proposed project: Firetree Place is located in the heart of downtown Williamsport, at 600 Campbell Street, Williamsport. Firetree place serves low income children, youth, and families primarily within walking distance of its location.

Brief Description of the project: Firetree Place is seeking funds to help provide affordable, high quality enrichment programs for low income youth in our community during the out of school hours (after school and weekends), when youth are most at risk. Out of School programs include: After School Club, Recreation and Sports Programs, Educational Programs, Music and Arts Programs, and Leadership and Development Programs. Because of our unique location in the heart of the city, Firetree Place is able to provide programs at a low cost for many families in need – over 85% of the families we serve are low income and minorities. These programs are vital for keeping at risk youth plugged in to programs that will help keep them safe, help guide and mentor them, help them develop their potential, and help them succeed.

- Fresh Express
- Recreation/Sports Programs
- Music and Arts Programs
- Leadership Programs

In the past 12 months Firetree Place has provided:

- 105 children and youth under age 18 with After School Club programs.
- 214 youth Kindergarten through 12th grades with membership programs such as Open Gym, sports, and recreation programs.
- 291 kids Kindergarten through 12th grades with Summer Camp programs.
- 2848 nutritious dinners in After School Program.
- 1874 healthy breakfasts and 2811 nutritious lunches in the Summer Camp Program.
- 5040 healthy snacks in the After School and Summer Camp Programs.
- 685 backpacks of food to children and youth to provide nutritious food for the weekends. 1289 low income individuals from the community received free produce and pantry items through the Fresh Express Program.

* Key personnel

Billy Dayton, Executive Director

Kendra Domino, After School Club and Summer Camp Coordinator

Jonaída Williams, Administrative Coordinator

Alec Eggerton, Recreation Coordinator

Kathy Eggerton, Food Programs Coordinator

Firetree Place also employs 4-6 Counselors during the school year and 10-12 Counselors during the Summer months.

* Client's served

- 77% of the families Firetree Place serves are either low income (under $34,860/family of 4) or very low income (under $17,450/family of 4).
- 82% are minorities.
- 58% of the youth in our programs are from single head of household families, with less resources to provide support to their children during non-school hours.
- 86% of the families that live near Firetree Place qualify for free or reduced school meals.
- The neighborhood surrounding Firetree Place experiences high food insecurity, with Lycoming County being the 9th highest food insecure county in Pennsylvania. (map.feedingamerica.org)
- Firetree Place is centrally located in downtown Williamsport where a large population of socio-economically disadvantaged families and youth are within walking distance.

Community Learning Center programs improved their reading and math grades, and that those who attended more regularly were more likely to make gains (Naftzger et. al., 2007).

- Effective afterschool programs can improve classroom behavior (Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction, 2010), school attendance, academic aspirations, and can reduce the likelihood that a student will drop out (Huang, Leon, La Torre, Mostafavi, 2008).
- Participation in afterschool programs has been associated with reduced drug use (Investing in Our Young People, University of Chicago, 2006) and criminal behavior (UCLA National Center for Research on Evaluation, Standards and Student Testing, 2007).
- Afterschool programs can play an important role in encouraging physical activity and good dietary habits. Participation in afterschool programs has been associated with positive health outcomes, including reduced obesity (Mahoney, J., Lord, H., & Carryl, 2005).
- Working families and businesses also derive benefits from afterschool programs that ensure that youth have a safe place to go while parents are at work. Parents concerned about their children's afterschool care miss an average of eight days of work per year, and this decreased worker productivity costs businesses up to $300 billion annually (Brandeis University, Community, Families and Work Program, 2004 and Catalyst & Brandeis University, 2006).

* Describe the community need for this project

The area surrounding Firetree Place is primarily a low income and minority neighborhood. Low income families in Center City Williamsport need a safe place where their children can go during the out of school hours to receive positive mentoring by trained, caring counselors, be engaged in life enhancing programs, receive educational assistance, and be provided with quality daily nutrition. By strengthening the weakest part of our community, the whole community becomes stronger.

According to the Lycoming County Needs Assessment the number one issue facing the County is drug and/or alcohol abuse by youth.

(<http://www.stepcorp.org/sites/default/files/Community-Needs-Assessment-Report-Lycoming.pdf>)

A recent survey of Lycoming County students showed that by 10th grade:

- 62.5% had used alcohol
  - 31.4% had used marijuana
  - 7.6% had used inhalants
  - 19.2% reported self-harm
  - 45.7% felt depressed almost always
  - 31.4% felt life was not worth it
  - 14.2% reported that they attempted suicide
- (<http://www.pccd.pa.gov>)

- Fresh Express –Provides free fresh produce and pantry food items for low income families and seniors in the community.
- Backpack Program- provides two backpacks of food every month for youth in Firetree Place programs to ensure kids have adequate food for the weekends.

By utilizing staff, the Firetree Place facility, staff time, money, equipment and transportation in order to provide the positive programs listed above for at risk youth and low income families in our community, Firetree Place will fulfill its mission to engage the community through enrichment activities and provides resources that will strengthen the whole community; and ensure the educational and personal enrichment of our area's youth, families, and seniors by providing comprehensive programs, camps, workshops, and seminars that empower individuals to grow and succeed.
